SIR,

I am directed to say that it is proposed to frame a set of rules for the disposal of non-postal stamps that are obsolete, unserviceable or spoilt or have been cancelled.

2. In rule 4 of the draft rules it is proposed to lay down that stamps lying in a local depot for which there is little or no demand shall not be regarded as unserviceable but should be transferred to other depots where there is demand for them and that if no such transfer is possible they should be destroyed. It has therefore become necessary to ascertain whether the surplus stamps in Coorg will be required elsewhere.

3. I am accordingly to enquire, at the instance of the Accountant-General, Madras, whether the surplus stamps in Coorg will be required by you, and, if so, whether provision may be made in the rules referred to above that such stamps should not be destroyed without a reference to you.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Captain,

SECRETARY TO THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER.
